ALAN PHILLIPS
... injury blow.

Alan may miss Tooting trip

WYCOMBE Wanderers may well be without centre back Alan Phillips for their trip to Tooting and Mitcham tomorrow (Saturday) in the Rothmans Isthmian League.

Alan suffered a cut eye and damaged nose after Dean Mooney allegedly elbowed him in the face at Walthamstow on Tuesday. Alan was taken to hospital and his injuries are likely to be too painful to allow him to play tomorrow.

This means that manager John Reardon will again have to reshuffle his side for a vital game the Blues must win to stand any chance of the championship. As there is no reserve defender in the squad since Dave Bullock joined Hayes, it could be that Bob Davies will stay at centre back and Gavin Fraser will wear the number three shirt.

Graham Mackenzie, unavailable on Tuesday, should return to midfield while Dylan Evans will be back in the forward line. Steve Hill or Tony Horseman will be sub.

Manager Reardon has pledged to attack Tooting, whose defence looks suspect. Said John: "We must go forward and attack, we have no choice. We will be having a real go at them."

Tooting have conceded 60 goals this season but up front they have one of the best forward lines in the league who are current top scorers with 77 — eight more than Dagenham. So while Wycombe must fancy their chances of scoring, they must also be at their best at the back — and this is where Phillip's injury has become so crucial.

Heathens up

FLACKWELL Heath FC clinched promotion to the Rothmans Hellenic League Premier Division on Wednesday with their 4-0 win at Pressed Steel. This has been the Heathens' first season in the league.
